

21st Annual
Kansas State SHRM Conference

HR: The  of the Organization

The Conference Committee invites you to register and attend the 21st Annual Kansas State SHRM Conference! We are excited to bring to you an informative, creative and professional conference where you have the opportunity to network, learn from industry leaders and expand your knowledge.

September 15-17, 2010 • Overland Park, KS

Early bird registration ends July 31st • Register at www.ksshrm.com

Highlights of the conference include:

- 5th Annual Russ Blosser Memorial Golf Tournament
 - St. Andrew's Golf Club – Overland Park, KS
- Pre-conference workshop featuring Scott Christopher
 - Additional registration fees apply – first 100 to register receive Scott Christopher's book "The Levity Effect" for free!
- Welcome reception where you can network with other HR professionals from across the state and visit the Exhibitor Marketplace.
 - Sample the state conference signature drink "The HeaRt-tini"
- Thursday Night Social Event
 - NEW for 2010: Join other attendees for a fun night of bowling, food and networking all for the low price of $30 (maximum 100 attendees – so register quickly).
- Toys for Tots donations and raffle drawing
 - Bring a toy – help the US Marine Corp start their 2010 holiday toy drive
- SHRM Foundation raffle drawings
 - Many items to purchase raffle tickets to raise money for this great foundation
- Dynamic keynote speakers
 - Come hear these industry leaders speak about the latest trends in Human Resources
- 20 different breakout sessions
 - The Entire Conference has been approved for up to 13 hours total of HRCI re-certification credit – The breakdown of HRCI credit is below:
 - 6.25 is STRATEGIC and
 - 1.5 is INTERNATIONAL

We look forward to seeing you in Overland Park in September where we hope you will experience how HR is the HeaRt of your organization.

Sincerely,

Jackie Bond

2010 Kansas State SHRM Conference Chair